THE HONOURABLE SHRI JUSTICE R.SUBHASH REDDY

WRIT PETITION No. 9650 OF 2000

6th June, 2007

Between:

Miss P.Jayalakshmi

…Petitioner

And

The District Collector,
Hyderabad District, Hyderabad and another.

…Respondents.

ORAL ORDER:

In this writ petition, the petitioner, a practising advocate, who had rendered service as an Additional Government Pleader in City Civil Courts, seeks a declaration that the action of the respondents in not paying arrears of her fees to the tune of Rs.78,484/-, as illegal and seeks a direction for payment of the said amount with interest.

This court by way of interim order dated 17.7.2000 directed the respondents to compute and release the remuneration due to the petitioner in respect of the professional service rendered by her as Additional Government Pleader in City Civil Courts.

It is fairly represented by the learned counsel for the petitioner that, subsequent to the filing of the writ petition, the respondents have computed the fees due to the petitioner and paid an amount of Rs.74,000/-. But, however, it is the case of the petitioner that the actual amount payable to the petitioner is Rs.78,484/-.

If, according to the petitioner, any further amount is due to her, she can make a representation in that regard to the respondents, and if such a representation is made, the respondents shall consider and pay, if any further amount is found to be due to the petitioner. But, however, having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, I am not inclined to grant any direction for payment of interest, as the substantial amount, which is due to the petitioner, is already paid.

Subject to above direction, the writ petition is disposed of. No costs.
